

Press Release

April 25, 2017

Local writer, Marianne O'Connor, author of "Haunted Hikes of New Hampshire" will be at Goodall Library on May 23rd at 6:00 PM. O'Connor shares more than trail mix with her readers as she recounts the ghost stories, legends and lore associated with some of NH's premier hiking trails. Marianne's 1 hour presentation is full of spooky surprises. It is a power point program highlighting unusual ghost tales and covering geological and historical events. Haunted locations are scattered throughout the state and feature legends such as Devil's Den in New Durham, Chief Chocorua in Tamworth, Sasquatch of Ossipee, the Bomber Plane in Woodstock, and a murder mystery involving Bette Davis in Franconia.

Marianne is a professional Educator and has presented her program to various libraries, schools and local organizations throughout New England. Her book has been featured on "NH Chronicle", "Windows to the Wild", NH NPR and other local programs.
